A NOTE TO PARENTS

We are proud to announce our 2009 Bulldog Basketball Camp. Our camp will offer a well-rounded experience for your son.

We believe camp should be fun and instructional for every camper. We welcome campers of all ability levels. To assure a more positive experience for all participants, campers will participate in camp activities within their own age group.

The goals of our camp are simple:

To teach basketball fundamentals.

To provide opportunities for individual and team competitions.

To teach positive work habits.

To promote good character traits and sportsmanship.

To have fun!

We hope to see your son at camp!

NEW CAMP FORMAT

The Bulldog Basketball camp will now run both sessions during the same week, with morning and afternoon sessions. This new format will cut instructional time down from 5 hours per day in past years to 4 hours per day. The reduction in instructional time has been reflected by a lower tuition rate for the camp. Our hope is that the shorter camp days will allow our campers to maintain a higher focus and energy level throughout the camp week. If your son needs to leave camp early for another activity, just let us know.
